"Mountain Mumps"

9A Play

A three act uproarious comedy, titled, "Mountain Mumps" by Austin Goetz was given before an enthusiastic audience, Friday evening, May 19, by the 9A class. The play was under the direction of Mr. Eynon.

Caroline Meyer as Peg Southern (Patsy) and Robert Pfeuffer as Link Forester, a young inventor, did a good job with the leading roles assisted by a fine supporting cast composed of, Doris Kushnereit, Mrs. Margaret Holmby Chilton; Betty Maturen, Florence Chilton; Francis Fassezke, Sue Chilton; Bill Phillips, Calvin Chilton; Victor Sverid, Timothy Regan; Howard Brandt, Kerry Regan; Jeanne Williamson, Mrs. Carolyn Bebe Shotts; Evelyn Taylor, Lida Shotts; John Donhaiser, Dr. Miller; and Clark Ardern, Homer Riggs.

The School Orchestra was under the direction of Mr. Shumate. The committees in charge were: Mrs. Adair and Miss Turner, ticket sales; Miss Zubler, Shirley Waddell and Phyllis Donhaiser, make-up; Mrs. Schroyer and Miss Devay, costumes; Esther Kyle, and Virginia Eppert, Properties; John Miller, Karl Mueller, and Dick Felsing, Staging.

The 9A Banquet

May 23 was the date set for the 9A Banquet when the 9A pupils, guided by Jack Cogan, journed to the World's Fair. They went first to the "Review of Our World" where Carol Gillion had charge. Their next stop was the "World of Tomorrow" where Bob Newcomb gave a talk. The 9A band played several selections under the direction of four 9A pupils: Bill Phillips, Doris Muehlenbeck, John Donhaiser and Jack Wertz. The toastmaster then directed the diners to the "Athletes' Hall" which was supervised by Ken Anderson and Virginia Eppert. "The Hall of Fame" was under the capable management of Sally Knights. More music was enjoyed; it was supplied by Bill Phillips and his saxophone. The 9A's and their guests then traveled to the "Rogues' Gallery" where Shirley Waddell presided. The program ended with short talks by the "Travellers' Aids": Messers, Miller, Brock, Allen, Little, and Guy.

The various committees were under the direction of Miss Turner who was general chairman. Others serving were: Miss Benjamin, Mrs. Adair, Miss Kelley, and Miss Zubler. The mothers' committees were directed by Mrs. Clifford Eppert, Mrs. Harold Stenglein, and Mrs. Clifford Spicer.

The 9A Assembly

The 9A assembly will be held Tuesday afternoon June 13, with Reverend Wilbur Grose, pastor of the Jefferson Avenue Methodist Church as the speaker. Miss Turner is general chairman. Miss Earle is in charge of the Class Will and Mrs. Davis is in charge of the Prophecy. Music is under the direction of Mr. Shumate.

An Excerpt from the 9A Class Prophecy

This is Station S. I. S. broadcasting from the auditorium of the South Intermediate School where the tenth reunion of the class of 1939 is now being held.

The first number on our program is a selection by the Jitter Bug Whiz Bang Band which has just arrived on the last boat from Vienna. The personnel of the band is: George Teck, Bill Brooks, Jack Wertz, Arthur Anderson, Edward Meyer, Doris Muehlenbeck, Bob Smith, Victor Sverid, Marian Brant, and Kenneth Wheeler all Tantalizing, Tin, Trumpet Tooters, Betty Zwingman, Don Baumgartner, John Donhaiser, Shirley Lauckner, and Robert Pfeuffer, Cute, Classy, Clarinet Chirpers, Minton Nelson and Bill Phillips, Snappy, Snifty, Sax-Sapers, Clark Ardern, Wesley Peterson and Ben Skelton, Dizzy, Dazzling, Dumb, Drummers, Frank Cornell, Angeline Goodwyn and Albert Seevers, Hot, Howling, Horn Hooters, John Werner, Bum, Blonde, Bassoon Blower, Evelyn Taylor, Flitting Fairy, Flute Fumbler and Harry Marr Blundering, Bass Voil Butcher.

I am sure you have enjoyed the selection by the band. We have just received telegrams from members of the class wishing us good luck. Here's one from Marcella La Pan, who owns a beauty shop in Central Africa and another from four old classmates, Bob Weiland, Norman Klemm, Betty Ralph and June Kutch who are touring the world advertising the long and short of it for Mutt and Jeff Rubber Bands.

We thought you might be interested in knowing some of the celebrities present. As I look around I see Margaret Roesler, a New York nerve specialist, Donald Hinds, the leading fashion creator and his two models, Geraldine Deande and Doris Klopf; Carl Barden, who will travel with a Chautauqua this summer giving selections from Virginia Bolger's latest book, "How to Overcome Bashfulness." Edwin Heliver who will appear on the same program discussing Russel Ochsankehl's book, "The Peculiarities of Women," Jesse Longley and Vernon Parks, fancy roller skating champions of the world; Howard Gibson manufacturer of safety pins and a member of the Safety First organization; and Harold Stier, the famous horticulturist who originated an odorless onion.

We are sorry that the next number broadcasted from the Class of '39 Reunion at S.I.S. Saginaw, Michigan, cannot be seen by those listening in this afternoon. They are a jolly looking group known as Sommerville's Squawking, Squeeling Songsters. It seems like old times to see the faces of such celebrities as Catherine Shumack, Beatrice Arch, Eloise Ruthford, Edwina Giessl, Anna Heinrich, Phyllis Jane Whyte, Elizabeth Bellinger.

The 9A Class Will

We, the 9A classes of South Intermediate School, being sound of mind (we hope) and strong in body (we believe) do will, leave, bequeath (or what have you) the following items (all greatly treasured possessions) to be disposed of in said manner and as follows, to wit:

First, We will all our books, used and unused along with the hand decorations of our many budding artists, to the archivies of history where their contents may be preserved unsullied by the touch of our successors, the 9Bs'.

Second, We bestow all hall passes including the huge one from the Metal Shop and the tiny one from the Music Department to the Booster Club as an aid in law and order enforcement in South's fair halls.

Third, We bequeath the inspiring organization of the 9A Fever Club to any group who can carry on the traditions in the eloquent Bill Phillip's style.

Fourth, We direct that after our just debts have been paid a large sum of money be set aside for the promotion of the great track event—"the longest run in hosiery"; said sum to be used for the purchasing of sand paper and supplied to the girls of South for smoothing off rough edges on chairs.

Fifth, We leave our positions on the Booster Club, on the teams and in the band to future 9A's who will surely take advantage of the excellent opportunity to cover themselves with mud and glory.

Sixth and lastly, we will the memory of ourselves to our teachers who have helped to make our stay here pleasant. We hope that they will think of us occassionally.

The individual class have the following bequests to make:

We, the 9A 212's, will our literary capacities (scribbling gossip in books) and our operatic voices to anyone who can make use of them.

We, the 9A 110's, leave our disease "walkitis in the hallsitis" to the 7A 200's in hopes that a cure will some day be found.

We, the 9A 109's and 218's will our athletic ability to the 9B 106's

We, the 9A 108's will our friendliness and good will to the 8A 206's who should carry on the good work so nobly started.

We, the 9A 107's will our masculine physiques and Miss Benjamin's guidance to the next group of 9A bachelors.

We, the 9A 106's, will our brilliant master minds and our ability to collect Honor and "S" pins to the 7A 258's who already have developed a fine instinct for collecting.

This document signed and sealed on the second day of June 1939 by the 9A Classes.

Witnesses,

Mr. Guy, Miss Kelly, Miss Frye

Calendar of Events

SEPTEMBER

Ho Hum ! School again but wouldn't we be mad if we couldn't come! Sports organized. Assemblies for new recruits.

OCTOBER

Booster Club elections. Soccer season opens. Pupils visit Bell Telephone Company. Teachers' Convention— two days vacation!

NOVEMBER

Loads of good assemblies: movie of Abraham Lincoln, "Good Book Week" presented by library and English classes, Tom Thumb (professional) music program. Donhaiser's swingsters launched dull rehearsals which sank without a ripple.

DECEMBER

Musical comedy. Two Christmas assemblies—one serious and one with Sandy Clauss bringing candy canes to good little boys and girls. VACATION.

JANUARY

Back to school. Seeing how it was a brand new year, we all buckled right down to work, or did we ? 9A play "Old Crusty Takes the Air" and good food at the 9A banquet. Printing Education Week Assembly.

FEBRUARY

Second semester starts. Theme song "I'm going to get better marks this time." Boosters elected. Flu makes invalids out of many of the gang.

MARCH

A little chilly but the Circus was as good as ever!

APRIL

April snows bring May blows. Brrrr but it's cold! 9A and 8A Fever Club big hit (?)

MAY

Annual track meet. (Lend me your overcoat) A great epidemic of "Mountain Mumps". Elementry science classes become fostor parents to eighteen chicks born in an incubator.

JUNE

World's Fair 9A Banquet. Award assembly. 9A's set off to a new high school. Goodbye everybody. See you in September.

Approximately forty-five boys in the printing department have worked on the printing of this annual. The ninth graders have, of course, carried the main burden of the work.

The editorial staff is deeply grateful to these boys, without whose work this book would have been impossible.

We also thank Shirley Waddell for the cover design and linoleum cuts which she designed and drew. Our thanks also to Joe Sary for cutting the linoleum.

CIRCUS VIEWS
MARCH '39

Spendless and Seemore Circus Successful

This year our annual Spendless and Seemore Circus was again an outstanding success. It was ruled by Queen Betty Zwingman and her attendants Ann Gilbert, Phyllis Donhaiser, Doris Muehlenbeck, and Angeline Goodwyn. The master of cermonies was Harry Denyes, a former alumnus.

The opening spectacle was based upon the 150th anniversary of the inauguration of George Washington. Periods of American history were represented by South students. A contest was held for the naming of the opening spectacle with the prize of $2.00 going to Charlotte Toshach. Her entry was "Yesteryears on Parade".

Our South girls did a new act on swinging ladders which proved a success. The girls who swung so gracefully were: Beatrice Arch, Carol Chisholm, Phyllis Donhaiser, Mary Hagle, Wilda Hubbard, Margaret Llewellyn, and Rose Scheidmiller. The boys performed daring and skillful acts on ladders, and we held our breaths with excitement as we watched the tumblers. A new act of pyramid building was demonstrated by a group of boys under the direction of Mr. Byron.

The girls who entertained the audience with the Military Drum Tap dance were: Gwen Benkert, Norma Doerfner, Betty Garrett, Norma Kuehn, Gloria LaFreniere, Mary Logan, Jean Neuhaus, Margaret Newcomb, Doris Peters, Carmen Schimmer, and Norma Westwood. The sixth graders in the Maypole dance were: Betty Bain, Shirley Culbert, Vivian Davis, Lillian Frost, Phyllis Mason, Lorraine Myer, Jean Miller, Mary Mitchell, Helen Schanhals, Charmaine Scott, and Jean Terrian.

For the second consecutive year, Esther Kyle has won first prize in the ticket selling contest.

Our program featured such renowned professional acts as the STUART ROBERTS TRIO; Earl Shipley, master clown; Harry Holmes, an old friend of South pupils; and Harrison's Animal Comedians. The Roberts trio brought us one of the most thrilling aerial acts we have ever seen and the Harrision troupe with their animals provided a grand amount of entertainment. Harry Holmes with his table act and the clowns were better than ever and kept the audience in fits of laughter. An unannounced professional act in the form of the Renyolds and Collete balancing act proved exceptional.

This year we had something new in the way of a pupil acts. It was Ferdinand the Bull! The boys participating in this act were: legs, Louis Basse, Don Wertz and August Golden; Cork tree, Richard Donhaiser; Matador, Dick Gardner; Picador, George Osborn; flowers, James Reichle, Jack Mott; Swordsman, Wm. Schroeder. Other striking acts were Miss Zubler's living statuary and the "South School midget".

The South band, under the direction of Mr. Shumate, provided the music at all of the performances; and very good music it was too. It added the final touch to the thoroughly fine entertainment of which every South pupil and teacher is justly proud.

The South Intermediate P. T. A. Association was in charge of the concessions. This is their single money making activity throughout the year. They are glad to report that their profits amounted to $167.79.

Clubs and Organizations

Marionette Club

Miss Susan Zubler, Sponsor

Six performances were presented this year by the Marionette Club. "The Twin Dancers" and "Dopey" were exceptionally well liked. "The Cat," with the jerky tail and the many meows, who was featured in the animal play, offered much amusesment to the audience. Members of the club are: Geraldine Arndt, Howard Brandt, Gwen Bankert, Linn Campbell, Margaret O'connor, Phyllis Donhaiser, Margaret Newcomb, Theo Snow, Evelyn Taylor, and Kenneth Willoughby.

Hi-Y Activities

Mr. Byron, Sponsor

This year the South School Hi-Y Club was not idle. We hear that they have visited many interesting places such as Wickes Boiler and the jail (only on a visit). Some of the boys were locked up to see how it feels and they were quite willing to get out. At Wickes Boiler they saw one of the largest lathes in the world.

The boys have gone on picnics and potlucks and have thoroughly enjoyed themselves. The officers are as follows: President, Wally Green, Vice President, John Miller; Secretary, Dick Miller; and Sergeant-at-Arms, Edward Keebler.

Band

Mr. Shumate, Sponsor

As the year draws to a close, band members think back over the many activities in which they participated during the last year. Among these were: basketball games, band assemblies, the circus, the Spring Festival, and finally the Spring Concert.

At the circus, because of lack of space, the members of the band alternated on different days. Opening with several marches and waltzes, one of the pieces was a cornet solo, "Pals Polka", accompanied by the band. Members of the ensemble were as follows: A. Anderson, M. Brandt, B. Brooks, G. Bowman, L. Davis, E. Meyer, E. Muelhenbeck, V. Sverid, B. Smith, G. Teck, J. Wertz, K. Wheeler, and J. Whaley.

Next year the band will have lost many of its members who are 9A's and will leave the school: A. Anderson, C. Ardern, D. Baumgartner, M. Brandt, F. Cornell, J. Donhaiser, A. Goodwyn, S. Lauckner, H. Marr, E. Meyer, D. Muelhenbeck, M. Nelson, W. Peterson, B. Pfeuffer, B. Phillips, A. Seevers, B. Skelton, V. Sverid, E. Taylor, G. Teck, J. Werner, J. Wertz, K. Wheeler, and B. Zwingman.

Orchestra

Mr. Shumate, Sponsor

Every South student is proud to review the record held by our own orchestra. When the time comes to resume rehearsals next year, this ensemble will have lost a fine group of musicians, who undoubtedly will climb to the top at Arthur Hill.

The list of 9A's leaving the orchestra this year are: Don Bolger, Angeline Goodwyn, Henry Moldenhauer, William Muirhead, William Kozac, Russell Oschankehl, Harriet Savage, Bob Smith, Phyllis Thery, and Virginia Harris.

The orchestra played at the following school activities: musical comedy, both 9A plays and the spring concert.

Stamp Club

Mr. Smith, Sponsor

Among its various other clubs, South can also boast of a Stamp Club. This organization is composed of nine ambitious philatelists and has met every Wednesday in room 109. The auction manager conducted the only auction of the year which was held on May 3. The officers are: Jacob Eichhorn, president; Jack Cogan, and Andy Christian, vice-presidents; Richard Donhaiser, treasurer; Philip Beehler, secretary; and Larry Murphy, auction manager.

Safety Patrol and Safety Control

Mr. Richards, Sponsor

The boys whom we see every morning outside the school on their posts are the Safety Patrol boys. They are on their corners every morning, noon and night, no matter what the weather is, keeping their eyes open at all times. They have done a very fine job this year and we appreciate it. Tom Allen was elected Captain and Clement DeBeau assists him as Lieutenant.

This year we have a new organization which is called the Safety Control Club which sponsors the Safety Patrol. The members of the Safety Patrol are generally taken from the Safety Control. The Safety Control Club meets once every month. Jack Wertz was elected President.

The Science Club

Mr. Eyer, Sponsor

This year our science club activities were mainly in the line of photography. The boys under the direction of Mr. Eyer, who is himself a amateur photographer, learned many things about cameras and taking good pictures. The club had many picture taking contests among its members and at one time offered a two week course on picture taking to the school at large. The club this year for the first time joined the American Institute of Science clubs located in New York city and next year they expect to take part in more of its activities.

The officers for the first semester were: President, Bill Dustin; Vice-President, Jim Stenglein; Secretary, Richard Griffin, and S-I-S reporter, Don Holst. During the second semester the following boys were officers: President, Richard Griffin; Vice-President, Don Holst; Secretary, Fred Becker; and S-I-S- reporter, Richard Miller.

Booster Club

Miss Kelley, Sponsor

Once again, the Booster Club had a very active year. Besides its main duty of keeping the halls clean and orderly it has sponsored two dances and a puppet show. Second semester officers: Ann Gilbert, Angeline Goodwyn, Betty Zwingman, Dale Keyser.

Verse Choir

Miss Roethke, Sponsor

The South School Verse Choir gave the following programs during 1938-9: a demonstration at Webber school for the M. E. A.; selections from the Bible and Xmas carols for the Xmas assemblies at school; two programs for the P.T.A.; and a broad cast over WBCM.

These are the members of the group: M. Ackerson, J. Artcliff, M. Baase, R. Bateman, B. Dengler, H. Devereaux, I. Eichhorn, D. Elliot, D. Foot, A. Fox, B. Fox, C. Fox, C. Fries, B. Gillion, C. Haar, F. Marks, J. Miles, S. Monk, G. Richardson, I. Schaefer, C. Toshack.

Scout Troop 13

Mr. Eyer, Sponosr

Troop 13 of South Intermediate School is sponsored by the South Parent-Teacher Association. Under the direction of the scout master, Mr. Eyer, the troop has enjoyed many hikes, overnight camps, and other troop get-to-gethers.

Recently Mr. Eyer gave his patrol leaders a scouting course. Those completing the training course were: Bill Dustin, Ed Meyer, Blair Rud, Richard Schmidt, Cecil Smith, Bill Spicer, Merv Straw, and John Werner.

With South School's Athletes

Heavyweight Basketball

Our heavyweights, contrary to the "Lights", did not have a very successful season. Several games were lost by one or two points and others lost in overtime. The first game was won with North, the score being 17-16. South also again defeated North 22-18 several weeks later. The hard working players were: N. Amanati, K. Anderson, C. Baker, W. Bisbey, B. Brown J. Donhaiser, A. Joswiak, A. Johann, G. LaFleur, B. Mason, T. Mauch, R. Oschankehl, K. Obendorfer, B. Scott, R. Smith, J. Suppes, G. Teck, and F. Wager.

Baseball

Because of the bad weather, the baseball players (and also trackmen) could not start practice on time. The boys were defeated in the first game by the score of 9-3, Webber the winner. To win the second game, South went to Bay City where, with the help of a homerun and a triple by our catcher, South won 6-5. The third game of the season was lost to North 4-2. As we go to press, South still has a chance for first. The future baseball stars are: K. Anderson, C. Baker, P. Beehler, D. Bolger, B. Brown, E. Clauss, W. Green, R. Hanes, D. Hinds, R. Ochsankehl, R. Pierce, E. Schuknecht, R. Smith, K. Spyker, J. Suppes, W. Steinpres, and I. Williams.

Track

South held its fourth successive junior high invitational track meet at Alumini Field on May 6. This year eleven schools participated with twelve pupils representing South. Those boys were: F. Ball, K. Ball, J. Baker, J. Donhaiser, J. Eichhorn, D. Kohlhoff, G. LaFleur, K. Obendorfer, R. Pfeuffer, N. Putnam, V. Severid, and N. Vliek.

May 17 under a cloudy sky our track meet was held. The boys could only complete in one event. The pupils winning first and second places will go to the all-city meet. The following list comprises the first place winners: F. Yancer, R. Garrison, E. Beauthin, M. Lobsiger, J. Zietz, C. Bela, D. Elliot, D. Nolan, G. Osborn, F. Oelberg, K. Praay, E. Schulz, H. Warner, G. Stack, K. Ball, R. Kemerer, K. Perry, R. Hanes, B. Dustin, D. Thompson, M. Miller, A. Anderson, R. Monk, I. Williams, D. Kohlhoff, R. Pfeuffer, J. Eichhorn, V. Sverid, R. Smith, F. Ball, C. Alderton, R. McQuade, R. Smith, D. Becker, G. LaFleur, W. Stier, J. Baker, J. Rine, and D. DeRop.

Soccer

South won its first soccer game of the year when the boys defeated North 4-3 in a thrilling final quarter. Then Central and Webber stopped the team twice. On November 1, South set down Central a notch when we defeated them in what proved to be an exciting game, South winning 2-3. The deciding goal was made with but four vital minutes to play. North was again downed by the purple and grey for the second time of the season. In the final game with the already champion Webber team, South played with determination but could only succeed to tie Webber 0-0. South finished the season in a tie for second place, an improvement over last year. The twenty-five members of the team were: C. Baker, W. Bisbey, C. Boyd, J. Donhaiser, H. Fritzler, R. Hanes, D. Hines, A. Johann, R. Kemerer, R. Mason, T. Mauch, H. Moldenhauer, R. Ochsankehl, R. Pfeuffer, E. Pope, N.

With South School's Athletes

Putnam, M. Shuster, R. Smith, K. Spyker, D. Strobel, J. Suppes, V. Sverid, F. Wager, I. Williams, and K. Anderson.

Lightweight Basketball

Our lightweights, having succeeded in being crowned winner five times in the last six years, had their work all cut out for them. South's winning streak was topped at three victories, but after the first five games were played, South again was tied for first.

The Lights lost only two games this season, the same number as the previous year.

The Saginaw-Bay City Athletic Association ruled a tie championship between the lightweight teams of South and Central. The following boys worked hard and deserve praise: F. Ball, K. Ball, D. Becker, E. Clauss, K. DeRop, B. Dirker, T. Doran, D. Felsing, A. Gehrcke, W. Green, R. Hanes, E. Helwer,C. Lemke,K. Nash,K. Praay, L. Russell, D.Thompson, K. Spyker,D. Spooner, D. Walter, H. Warner, J. Werner, B. Wheatley, I. Williams.

Girls Sports'

This year's sport season for girls started with volleyball. After three or four try-outs, Miss McDermott finally assembled the team.

The first game was played here with North, the latter winning. We played Central and Webber next and won both games.

Back again at North we were defeated, but the two following games with Central and Webber were won.

The girls on the team are:
R. Baumgartner, M. Buxman, E. Chisholm, M. Dunlap, A. Furlo, A. Gilbert, W. Hubbard, M. Japp, D. Kloph, M. Llewellyn (Captain), J. McLaughlin, M.Oering,B.Raymond, D.Ruegsegger, K. Stertz, E. Shanhals, S. Sensabaugh, L. Weinburg, J. Williamson, and B. Zwingman. The second team consisted of these girls: H. Andre, J. Booth, A. Christian, J. Danhoff, R. Fortune, J. Gillis, M. Hagle, M. Logan, L. Mc Corkle, H. Novack, M. O'Connor, G. Ott, D. Peters, C. Schimmer, M. Schaffer C. Shoup, E. Stroble, B. Turner, and M. Zeitz. Although they did not take "champs" as they hoped to, they tried hard to play good games.

Aside from homeroom intramural games of volleyball, basketball, and base ball, the girls have used spring for preparing for the track meet which was held on May 17. Overlooking the cold and cloudy weather, everyone participated with jest and enthusiasm.

Following are the blue ribbon winners: 11 year olds- M. Beeker, J. Cleary J. George, A. Seeley, 12- G. Bolger, E. Brush, A. Christian, C. Danhoff, I. Eichhorn, D. Gillion, C. Harr, L. Jamison, L. Kirby, M. O'Connor.

Thirteen year-olds: R. Baumgartner, C. Burke, G. La Freniere, C. Fox, E. Heilborn, J. Mack, E. Muehlenbeck, C. Shimmers, E. Stertz, L. Shultz.

Fourteen lights: G. Deander, S. Joswiak, F. Crass, M. Four, M. Lehr, L. Peart. Fourteen Heavies: A. Benthien, M.Holvey, M.Jaap,M.Llewellyn, B. Maturen, C. Shoup.

Fifteen year olds: A. Baase, R. Fortune, A. Gilbert, L. Hall, W. Hubbard, V. McCarty, D. Rudy, J. Roberts, A. Slaren, and E. Schultz.

Students' Original Writings

Character Sketch of DeBracy

John W. Goppelt, 9A106

DeBracy, the leader of a band of free soldiers, (that is, soldiers who would fight for anyone who would hire them) was a Norman, and at the time of the story took the Norman point of view with regard to the Norman conquest of England. He was in league with Prince John and was the originator of the plot to kidnap Cedric and the rest of his party. Had DeBracy known beforehand what the outcome of the kidnapping was going to be, he probably wouldn't have tried to get a bride in that way. The reason for that would have been because DeBracy liked to take a coarse half way between good and evil. He never did the worse he could; for example, when Ivanhoe was in DeBracy's power, he didn't kill the wounded knight. DeBracy never did the best he could have done either, so the main part of his character was that he was usually "sitting on the fence," unable to decide between good or evil. He probably could have been changed by some other person to be either a good person or a bad person.

Caught in the Rain

Phyllis Walat, 9A108

The rain was pouring down on the small village. Thunder roared and continuous streaks of lightning filled the sky and brought light to the darkened day. Pools of water stood where not ten minutes ago it was dry and the day very warm.

As soon as the sky darkened and thunder was heard, little Tommy started for home. He had gone a short way when it started to pour. Tom dashed to the nearest bush and then tossed his fish pole aside. He trembled with fright and cold as he brought down his rolled shirt sleves and pant legs.

The water from his wavy hair was rolling over his down cast face. His large blue eyes were doleful instead of being filled with the excitement that they usually held.

The rain stopped as suddenly as it had begun and the sun peered out from behind the clouds shining brightly.

Tom raised his head,then was upon his feet. Once again his expression changed. A small hand reached up to brush his hair back. He grabbed his hat and fish pole and darting through the mud and pools of water started for home.

Character Sketch of Brian de Bois-Guilbert

Jean Williamson, 9A209

Brian de Bois-Gilbert was, in my estimation, the most interesting figure in the book. He did things because he wanted to do them, not because he was supposed to do them. Although Bois-Guilbert did take vows and forget to keep them he was strong-minded. He had a countenance which told of the many dangers he had been through. His appearance seemed to challenge anyone to appose him.

Bois-Guilbert had a failing I did not like and it was that he never thought of anyone else when he was doing something he had the urge to do. If he hurt something he didn't mind so long as he got what he wanted.

He loved Rebecca and stole her away not thinking of the consequences. He asked Rebecca, just before she was to be burned, if she would forgive him for what he had done to her. Even until the last min-

Our Little Engine

First Grade, Room 152

One day we saw a big engine running on the track. We said, "Let's make a little engine." And we did make a good little engine. One day we took our engine to the office and got a big box of oranges. Billy sent them to us from Florida. We have fun outside every day playing with our little engine.

Report for Annual

Grade One, Room 158

We built a house and made furniture for it. Pets that we brought to school were: fish, dogs, cats, rabbits, tadpoles and chickens. We played circus and made animals. A visit to the bakery led to the building of a bakery in our room. Then we wrote and acted a play.

What We Have Done This Year

Emil Tessin, Room 160

At the beginning of this year we made a community. We decided to study community helpers. We took a trip to the fire station. Next we studied about policemen. The policemen help us when we are lost. Then we studied about mailmen. We decided to make a post office of our own but first we had to see what a real post office looked like, so we got cars to take us over to the eastside. The thing I like best was the canceling machine. Then we made our post office.

The Grocery Store

Nancy Jo Houston, Grade 2, Room 160

In our room we are making a grocery store. We have made things of paper-mache too. We melted old crayons. Then we quickly put the apples and strawberries in. There were oranges and potatoes and bananas. The children brought tin cans that vegetables had been in and also boxes. We are going to make signs. We shall have a good grocer.

Indians

John Lee, Grade 3, Room 162

The third grade just got done studying Indians. We found out how the Indians traveled, what they ate, their games, and how they dressed. Different tribes make different homes. Some tribes make hogans, some teepees, and some wigwams too. We are making a tapestry too.

Norma drew a picture of an Indian on a horse. It is embroidered with colored yarn on a gunny sack. The gunny sack is tacked onto a wooden frame now, but when the picture is finished we will take it off and hang it in our room.

Our Garden

Scott Perkins, Don Steele, Grade 4, Room 254

Last fall when we decided to have a garden we brought broken flower pots to put in the bottom for drainage. Then we put in nice, rich, black dirt and brought slips of plants. Ned brought a pine seedling from the North.

In one corner of the garden there is a pan of water with seaweed, a snail, three gold fish, and a turtle. The turtle has been sleeping all winter until the last week in April.

Now our garden is very lovely to look at because the blossoms are coming out.

We know that our garden has grown well because it has had lots of sunshine, plenty of water, and nice rich soil in which to grow.

What We Have Done This Year

Fourth Grade, Room 260

This year we have done many interesting things. We have made puppets and we had a play to represent children of the countries we have studied. We have two book cases which we made.

This year we have done something interesting and it is called buttermilk painting. Some of the children have made up original songs. We have a Book Club and a Safety Club. We have put up plans every week of what we should do that week. We have had many good book reports. The one I liked best was "The Good Master." Sometimes we acted out Safety plays for our Safety Club.

Through the Fifth School Year

Charles Lake Jr., Grade 5, Room 262

We have had great responsibilities through out the year. We have sponsored the Safety Patrol, Booster Club and the Student council. We hope you think we have done a good job.

Next I want to tell you about the things we have enjoyed doing. The study of good old Michigan was interesting. We have gone on two nice excursions, one to the Art Exhibit where there were many beautiful paintings to to appreciate. The childrens' home was the other. We made a big booklet about that trip. Lately we have enjoyed painting pictures of Mexican scenes because we are studying Mexico. Our weekly book club has been a great intertainment to us. It has made us many new book friends.

When the door of the elementary closes behind us I am very sure that we will miss greatly the years spent there.

Brian De Bois-Guilbert

ute Bois-Guilbert was pleading with Rebecca to run away with him and he would cover her neck and arms with jewels and make her a queen. Of course, Bois-Guilbert unwittingly brought this horrible fate upon Rebecca. He loved Rebecca so, that he could not bear to see her burn, and yet he did not want to see his ambitions crash before him. And so the great opposition of his passions caused him to be over come and he died an honorable death.

STARS

Margaret Newcomb, 6A 204

A million tiny lamps,
In the depths of the night
Guiding earthly travelers
With their fairy light.

Glory of the heavens
In a velvet sky
Beautiful as jewels
Glistening from on high.

A Midnight Visitor

Margaret Newcomb, 6A204

When all is dark and all is still,
A visitor hops to my window sill
A small little man, a fairy fellow,
With cap of green and coat of yellow.

He climbs in my room that little elf.
And gazes at me from my window shelf.
He smiles a little and shakes his wee head.
And thinks I am fast asleep in my bed.

He climbs to my desk and sits on my lamp.
And peers down the inkwell, the inquisitive scamp.
He rocks on my blotter and plays a small pipe,
And is gone in the morning when once more 'tis light.

Grandpa's Chase

Beverly Dengler, 7A200

It was a nice warm day at the cottage and the whole family was coming back from a walk. As we were coming down the road we saw some tracks. Right away grandpa said, "Look! Deer tracks!"

"You're silly," we replied. "Those aren't deer tracks. A deer wouldn't be down here."

He insisted it was a deer and said, "Now all of you be quiet so you don't scare it." So we were quiet.

Well, was grandpa surprised when we found out that instead of a deer down by the lake, there were about six pigs (from the farm about a block and a half away) eating our celery that we were going to have for our dinner. We all started to laugh, but it really wasn't so funny when we couldn't have celery for dinner.

Five of the pigs ran away but the sixth and fatest one was stubborn and kept right on enjoying his meal. Well, grandpa started to chase it. The pig started to run with grandpa a little way behind it. Over the stones and roots, under the low branches of the trees, through the bushes, the two went! Every few feet the pig would turn around to see if grandpa was still coming. He was. They went on like this for a few seconds when all of a sudden grandpa stumbled and fell over the root of a tree. When he fell his hands went up and hit the pig on the back. The pig turned around, put his tail between his legs and looked at grandpa. Then it started to run and didn't come back again that day.

I have never seen grandpa laugh as hard as he does when he is telling that story.

Southern Smiles

Dear Foos,

Well, after a long absense I am back again, getting into your hair (as usual) but with a bit of quip (?). With all your wondering, bitting of toe-nails, and stuff, I am about to reveal my identity (whewwwww). But with a puzility (puh-zi-li-tee) first. I am a 9A-110 and 9A-106 (I get around). I have brown hair both short and long, I have eyes to see with, and naturally I have two pair of lips and a nose ust too, too divine (Ha-Ha) (sarcasm). In short I am that sweet little headache,

Mrs. Adair: "If you took the square root of x and added ymr (H plus 2), what would you get?"

Robert Williamson: "An E."

What did the big rose say to the little rose?

" Hi Bud !"

This was found on a tombstone:

"I passed a cop without a fuss
I passed a load of hay;
I tried to pass a swerving bus
And then I passed away."

Butts Pfeuffer: "Did you know that Adam was a dancer?"

Betty Zwingman: " No, was he?"

Butts P. "Sure, he fell for the big apple didn't he?"

* * *

Kenny Spiker: "What hand do you eat soup with?"

Vonnie Yntema: "My right hand of course!"

Kenny Spiker: "I don't, I use a spoon."

* * *

Mr. Smith (grabbing 9A): "Young man, I believe Satan has a hold on you."

Dick Felsing (quickly): "I do believe he has, sir."

Miss Turner: "How old are you?"

Angeline Goodwyn: "Fourteen."

Miss Turner: "And what are you preparing to be?"

Angy: "Fifteen."

Bill Phillips: "I am going to Bay City next week. I need a change and a rest."

Bill Brooks: "Don't do it."

Bill Phillips: "Why not?"

Bill Brooks: "Because the railroad will get the change and the girls the rest."

Don Baumgartner: "I'm quite a near neighbor of yours now. I'm living right across the bay."

Phyllis Donhaiser: "Good, I hope you drop in sometime."

Bob Weiland: "You're the most artificial girl I know of."

Adeline Thom: "How's that?"

Bob Weiland: "Even your mind's made up."

Panting and perspiring, two Irishmen on a tandem bycicle at last got to the top of a steep hill.

"That was a stiff climb, Linn C.," said the first.

"Sure and it was that John W., and if I hadn't kept the brake on we would have gone backward."
